Invitation for Sponsorship

Dear Sir/Madam,

Warm greetings from the Bombay Science Librarians' Association (BOSLA)!

We are delighted to announce our upcoming national-level seminar, "Empowering Open Science: The Evolving Role of Library and Information Science Professionals," scheduled for August 23, 2025.

This national seminar will bring together library professionals, researchers, academic leaders, and technology partners to discuss and explore the transformative role of libraries in the open science movement.

We are reaching out to invite your esteemed organization to support this important academic endeavour by becoming a Sponsoring Partner. This will be a valuable opportunity for your brand to connect with a niche audience of educational and research professionals, and to demonstrate your support for knowledge dissemination and digital transformation in libraries.

Sponsorship Options & Benefits

◆ Gold Sponsorship – ₹50,000/-

- Recognition during Opening and Closing Ceremonies
- Product Presentation (15 minutes) during the seminar
- Display of company name and logo on the event page
- Prominent branding at key locations at the seminar venue (Seminar Hall, poster area)
- Two complimentary registrations
- Inclusion of one promotional item in the seminar kit

◆ Silver Sponsorship – ₹25,000/-

- Recognition during Opening and Closing Ceremonies
- Display of company logo on event page and event banner
- Inclusion of one promotional item in the seminar kit
- Two complimentary registrations

Why Sponsor?

- High Visibility among 200+ professionals from leading universities, colleges, research institutions, and industries
- Brand Association with a respected professional body – BOSLA, established in 1970
- Networking Opportunities with academic leaders, policymakers, and technologists
- Media Exposure through BOSLA's outreach and promotional campaigns

We sincerely hope that your esteemed organization will consider supporting this important initiative. Kindly confirm your interest at the earliest so we can include your logo in all pre-event publicity materials.
